

Forest Way School

Forest Way is a co-educational day area special school for 216 pupils aged 3-19 years old. They have a wide range of needs from moderate to profound and multiple learning disabilities. A minority of pupils have challenging behaviour.

Pupils are grouped according to age in 17 mixed ability class groups. The staffing ratio is a minimum of 1 adult to 3 pupils. Each pupil has an Individual Education Plan (IEP) and individual needs are met by grouping across the timetable.

The school moved into a wonderful new building in January 2009. It has an interactive forest heart and curved corridors with giant woodland pictures on them. It is intended to be a resource for the whole community and has inspirational facilities such as a swimming pool with light/sound above and below water, a drama/virtual reality studio, art and design room, science laboratory, food technology room and a range of sensory rooms. The outdoor area includes a woodland, geodesic dome, bird hide, camp fire area, vegetable beds, pond, ball court, bike track and exciting play equipment.

The school also owns an adjoining bungalow, 'The Croft' which is used for our older pupils to develop their independence skills.

The school is co-located on a site with 3 mainstream schools and a Children's Centre, offering excellent opportunities for inclusion links and collaboration. The school is ten minutes drive from junction 22 of the M1 and is situated in the National Forest approximately 2 miles from the centre of Coalville, a market town. There is a strong community support for the school in practical and financial terms.

Our last inspection was in May 2016 where we were judged to be outstanding with no key issues. We became a Teaching School in July 2011 and work with 52 other schools to professionally develop teachers from initial teacher training to leadership posts. There is a shared commitment to striving for high quality teaching and learning.

Forest Way operates a no-smoking policy for all personnel. Staff will need to leave the school campus if they wish to smoke.

Our teaching and support staff are hardworking, committed, fun loving and work well as a team.
